CHAIRMAN'S COLUMN

Tony Sage

I'd like to welcome everyone to today's game, including the players, officials and supporters of Central Coast Mariners.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of our loyal Glory members – you are the lifeblood of the club and without you, there would be no Glory!

On the field, meanwhile, we will be out to build upon last week's impressive 2-1 win over Wellington and with the team clearly starting to gel, I'm confident we can do exactly that.

I'm sure Diego Castro will be pulling the strings once more and I would like to personally congratulate him on reaching 100 games for the club and also Ivan Franjic on making his 200th Hyundai A-League appearance.

GO GLORY!

TONY POPOVIC

MEET THE OPPOSITION

Alen Stajcic

After a tough 2018/19 campaign, the Mariners have shown significant improvement this term but are still searching for their first win after a narrow defeat against Western Sydney and a 1-1 derby draw with Newcastle.

More than a dozen new players were brought in by Head Coach Alen Stajcic during the off-season, including Perth-born goalkeeper Mark Birighitti, experienced Scottish defender Ziggy Gordon and highly-rated Serbian midfielder, Milan Duric.

The visitors' squad today is also likely to include former Glory duo Jack Clisby and Daniel De Silva, as well as veteran striker Matt Simon who will be out to claim his seventh career goal against Glory.

The men from Gosford, however, have not won here in the West since November 2013.
