Tony Sage

It's been a hugely exciting week for the club both on and off the field.

I was absolutely delighted with what was comfortably our best performance of the season at Melbourne City last Friday.

We dominated a very good side and it was great to be able to reward our members and fans who turned out in force again at AAMI Park.

Then we had the ACL draw which pitted us against Shanghai Shenhua, Ulsan Hyundai and another team which is still TBC.

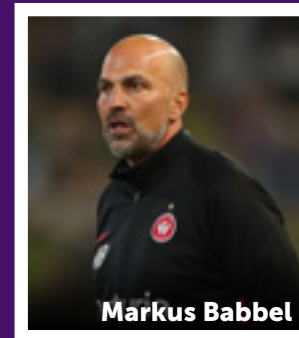

It was a proud day for the club and I cannot wait for the group stage to begin.

But for now, let's focus on tonight and helping the lads as they look to get the better of Western Sydney Wanderers.

HEAD COACH:
MARKUS BABBEL

MEET THE OPPOSITION

Markus Babel

Wanderers arrive at HBF Park tonight looking to end a run of four straight defeats, the most recent of which came against Wellington on Saturday.

Markus Babel's men began the season brightly, however, securing maximum points from their opening three games, which included a memorable derby win over Sydney FC.

Skipper Mitchell Duke has led from the front by scoring four goals and Wanderers boast plenty of other attacking threats, including livewire duo Kwame Yeboah and Bruce Kamau.

At the other end of the field, Swiss goalkeeper Daniel Lopar has caught the eye by producing a string of spectacular saves.

The red-and-blacks have not fared particularly well in WA over the years, winning on only two of their ten league visits to date.
