CHAIRMAN'S COLUMN

HEAD COACH:
TONY POPOVIC

Tony Sage

I'd like to welcome all our members and fans, plus those of Adelaide United, to HBF Park and wish you a belated Happy New Year!

We head into this game having ended 2019 in fantastic form, chalking up four consecutive victories.

Exactly as Tony Popovic said it would, the team is really starting to gel now, the results are there for all to see and some of the football we've been playing has been an absolute joy to watch.

Our last home game against Adelaide was that incredible semi-final last season and I think we'd all settle for that level of excitement again today!

This match begins an arduous stretch of six games in 32 days, including our AFC Champions League debut at home to Shanghai Shenhua, so let's get right behind the lads!

HEAD COACH:
GERTJAN VERBEEK

MEET THE OPPOSITION

Gertjan Verbeek

Under the guidance of experienced Dutch coach Gertjan Verbeek, the Reds have won five and lost six of their 11 games thus far this term and head into Round 14 occupying sixth place on the ladder.

They certainly boast plenty of attacking pace and flair within their squad, notably in the form of Ben Halloran, Riley McGree, Ryan Strain and George Blackwood, while Paul Izzo remains one of the competition's most consistent goalkeepers.

Adelaide's best result of the season to date arguably came in Round 7 when they downed old rivals Melbourne Victory 3-1, with McGree bagging two of the goals.

The South Australians have won on six of their 20 Hyundai A-League visits to HBF Park, the most recent of those victories coming in January 2018.
