A warm welcome to HBF Park for what is a critical game as we look to stay in the Finals mix.

Tonight sees a meeting between the two clubs who have been handed by far the biggest set of challenges this season, with Wellington being based in Wollongong for the whole campaign and our squad having spent more than 80 days on the road or in quarantine since November.

No other teams have had this much disruption to their daily lives and the dedication and commitment shown by both sets of players and staff has been remarkable.

We now stand on the cusp of a run of home games which I know that our Members and fans and players alike are all massively looking forward to.

The fantastic Footballers Go Free promotion in operation this evening means that there will be many new faces in the stadium and I hope the experience leads you to really get behind your local club by becoming Members.

MEET THE OPPOSITION

Ufuk Talay

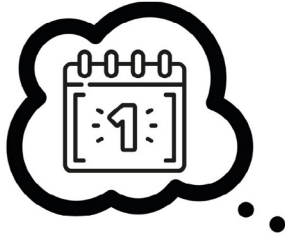

Phoenix arrive at HBF Park this evening having reignited their Finals hopes with a dramatic 3-2 win over Western United last time out.

Despite facing the challenge of being based in Wollongong throughout the current campaign, Ufuk Talay's men have managed to secure five victories, one of which came at the expense of Glory in Round 7.

Among their star performers this term have been overseas attacking duo Ulises Davila and David Ball who have grabbed 11 goals between them and there is also plenty of excitement around a number of homegrown teenagers including Sam Sutton and Ben Waine.

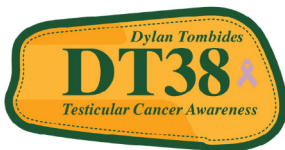

Wellington have traditionally struggled on their trips to Perth, picking up just five wins in 20 attempts, with the most recent of those victories coming back in October 2015.

Prominent players to have represented both clubs include Liam Reddy, Tando Velaphi, Brandon Wilson, Shane Smeltz, Leo Bertos, Nick Ward and Danny Vukovic.
